

Awards

The Biomag 2014 awards program supports and recognizes research excellence in the field of biomagnetism.

Prizes will be presented at the awards ceremonies at the Biomag 2014 Gala Dinner.

The members of the Awards committee can be found on our website "Biomag2014" under "Committees".

Mid-Career Award

The Mid-Career Award (MCA) recognizes the contribution of a scientist at the mid-career level who has made significant contributions to the field of biomagnetism research and to encourage such a scientist to help bring this field to a new level of advancement.

The winner will be awarded: $5,000 CAD

Nomination process: Each candidate for the MCA should be nominated by another scientist in the field of biomagnetism research. The nomination portfolio should consist of:

(1) a nomination letter stating major reasons for the nomination. The nomination letter can be signed by more than one person and should be submitted to our awards e-mail address:

awardsubmissions@biomag2014.org, and

(2) a statement by the candidate (maximum one page) on the goals and vision of the field of Biomagnetism and the candidate's CV to be submitted as a single pdf file (last name_MCA.pdf) to awardsubmissions@biomag2014.org.

Submission deadline: July 1, 2014

Eligibility: The eligible candidates should be between 40 and 50 years of age with a faculty appointment at an academic or a research institution (a tenure-track position is preferred, but not required).
